

Procedures for recording requests of a student's personally identifiable information

NHSC strives to maintain privacy in matters regarding personal student information. In order to guarantee privacy, the NHSC Financial Aid Office keeps a recording sheet with the student's file to document every request for private information, whether approved or denied. This sheet is also accompanied by any written permissions NHSC has received regarding the release of financial aid records.