August 6, 2020
NHS College Adult Learning Center

Reopening:

- Tuesday, August 4, 2020
- 9am-12pm and 1 pm-4pm Monday-Thursday
- Students will enter through Door C and proceed directly to the GED classroom.
- Restrooms at the east end of the hall will be open for your use.
- Access to the rest of the building is restricted.
- No more than three students at one time will be accommodated in the GED classroom.
- Former GED students, prior to college pandemic shutdown, will have priority.
- No food allowed in the GED rooms, 1 person per computer station with no wandering around, no family/children in classroom or on campus
- Educational packets are available to students not wanting to be in the classroom setting, as well as online or phone support from the GED staff.

NHS College follows CDC guidelines for the pandemic and 're-opening':

- Social distancing will be practiced. No group congregating.
- If you are sick or don't feel well, STAY home!
- If you have an underlying health issue, STAY home!
- Face masks are recommended to be used. NHS College has a limited supply of masks that may be requested.
- Wash/sanitize hands prior to entering the classroom and limit what you touch. Wipe down keyboard, computer, and mouse before and after use.
- The classroom and equipment will be sanitized on a daily basis (based on usage).

The Pearson VEU Test Center will be open but with only one testing station. Students will need to contact Adult Education Coordinator, Betty Lockwood (701.627.8096) to schedule a testing time.

*Your cooperation and understanding is appreciated as we do our best to protect students, staff and community during the pandemic.
