

CX 134.

Son-of-a-Star and wife Good Birds parents.
Transverse stripes on leggings mean
he has struck coup on enemy.

C135

Good Bird and Parents.

CX 136

Good Bird showing Fish trap. The basket he holds is used to dip up the fish. A beef's head or a carcass is thrown in the trap and door raised.
A pole (slender) with bunch of dry leaves shows by its swaying when trap is full

The fisher leaps in the water, & slams shut the gate.

✓ CXXX 137 Another view of same. Gate is on right. Good Bird says the owner carefully brushes his body off with a whisk of wild sage after taking the fish "just like Jesus' blood" as he explained it.

CXXI 138
 Short Bull's camp.
 At dinner. James
 Baker in rear.
 The bushes to the left are thrust in the ground for a shade - a common Indian custom.

✓ CXXI 139
 Same another view.

140
A sweat lodge, or frame therefor.

141
William Bell
wife and babies.
(Bell died winter 1906-7)

142
Same Another
Exposure. Note fine tobacco pouch with porcupine quill work.

CXLIII 143.
William Bell and Children

CXLIV 144
William Bell James Baker and self.

CXLIV 145.
William Bell - Dancing
costume.

CXLV 146

Our party - Mr. Shultis, wife, and 2 children, Miss McKenzie, Fred Wilson and self (using field glasses)

CXLV 47

Mandan goaves. (Some 15 years old or more) Mr. Shultis' children beside them

CXLV 48

James Baker (Hidatsa) and wife (Mandan)

CXLV149.
Indian Pomes. Fred in background.

CXLIX 150
Indian on pony.

CL151
Lewis Baker and son.
(Hidatsa) I think the Baker
Brothers' mother was a Mandan but the two tribes are much mixed.

CL 132

Butterfly's tent - the largest I ever saw. Had 19 poles and about 35 feet high.

CLII 133

James Baker (Hidatsa) wife (Mandan) and child.

CLIII 134

Skeleton of Beef.

✓

155

Dakota camp near Mandan, July 1906.
Drying meat.

156

Another view of same site further distance (taken some day. Skin pegged to ground)

✓

157

Same another view from different part of camp.

158

Same as above

✓

159

View on the Missouri near our camp at Saengers, about 80 miles north of Mandan.
Isolated tree like this is rare.

160

Large rock near our second camp about 40
miles north of Mandan.
Large dark spot to right of rock marks a Jack Rabbit's form.

161

Log house where we took dinner. Stands on an Indian village.

162

At Coal Harbor Camp.
Nettles, some of them
as high as one's head.

163

✓ Rattlesnake I killed as it crossed the road Fort Berthold Reservation between old Fort Berthold and Independence Point. I think the place was a few miles before we reached Elbow woods. ✓

164

Same. to show opening mouth.

165

✓ Service Berry (or Bull Berry) Bushes. ✓

166

Choke
Choke cherries

167

Red Red Willows
Missouri River Valley

168

"Mrs Kidney"

169

Earth Lodge of Mrs Kidney.
Note ladder on right of door. The lodge is kept in order apparently in memory of her husband. Latter was one of the "unreconcilables" and killed two half bred children as late as about 1885.

170

Same, another view. I was not allowed to enter but went up on the roof with her permission and looked down the smoke-hole.

✓ Same another view.

171

Same. Missouri River in distance.

172

✓

173

Our camp by the Mission House. Fred at table. Steinbueck with back turned. Indian boy in foreground.

174.

Self and two Indian boys near Mission House

175
Indian - Mission House
Camp

553

176

Good birds first (divorced) wife, his daughter and a child by her second husband.

177

James Baker's wife (Mandan) and child.

178

Pony - Mission House Camp.

179 Indian.

180
Wolf Chief.

181

182

183

Mabel and Alice Shultis and two Indian girls.

184

Same

185

Same.

✓

186

573

187
Native Tobacco

✓

188 Tiptonia or prairie turnip. Male and female plant.

189
Mission House

✓

✓

190
View from Mission House (Long's Mission Point Independence) toward river.

191
Interior Wolf Chief's Earth Lodge

192
View of Shrine and Medicine bag.

193 Pounding Corn.

194
Mrs James Baker using corn mortar.

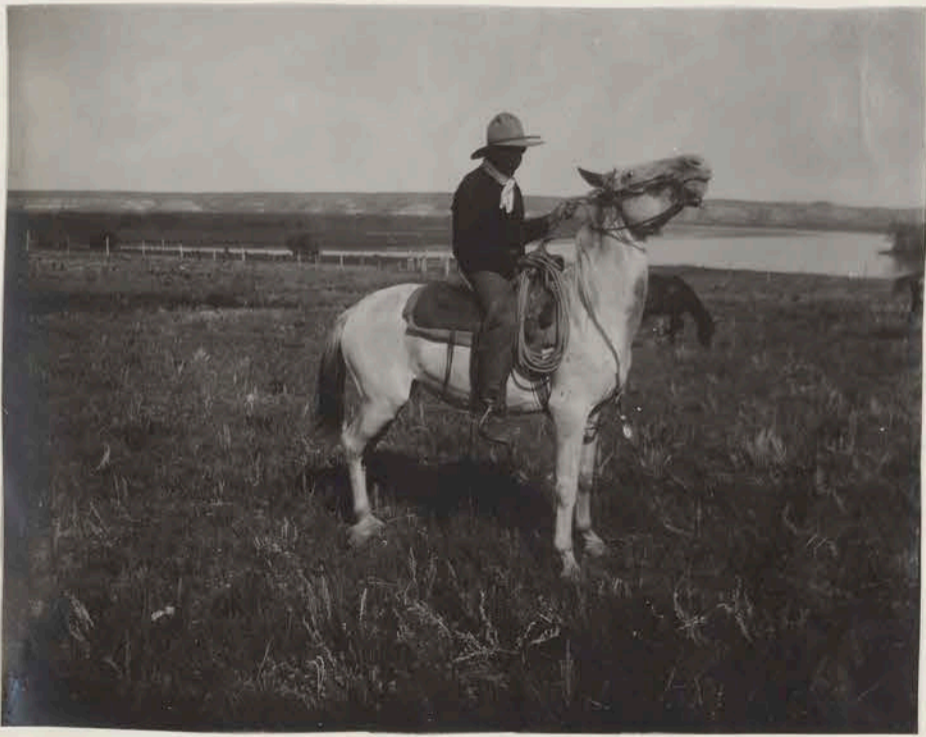

✓ 195
Same.

196 White Owl. Woman is his daughters - with a vile temper - wouldn't have her self photographed.

✓ 197
Indian and Pony

198
Mr Shuetis' baby.

199
Indian and Pony

✓ 200 White Owl and
un. lovely daughter

201

Three Indian Boys

202
Indian, photographed by Steinbrueck.

203

Alice Shullis - Mandan Graves.

204

Shultz's Children - Mandan Graves.

205

Mission House Camp. Was photographing a wounded crow which seems to have gotten under a log.

206

Buffalo skull on roof of Son-of-a-star's cabin.

207

Sweat lodge. Rake & draw in hot stones.

208

Same.

210

Hooping shed.

209
James Baker's cabin - Hooping shed. My brother Fred and Indian boy.

211

Roof shed, William Bell's.

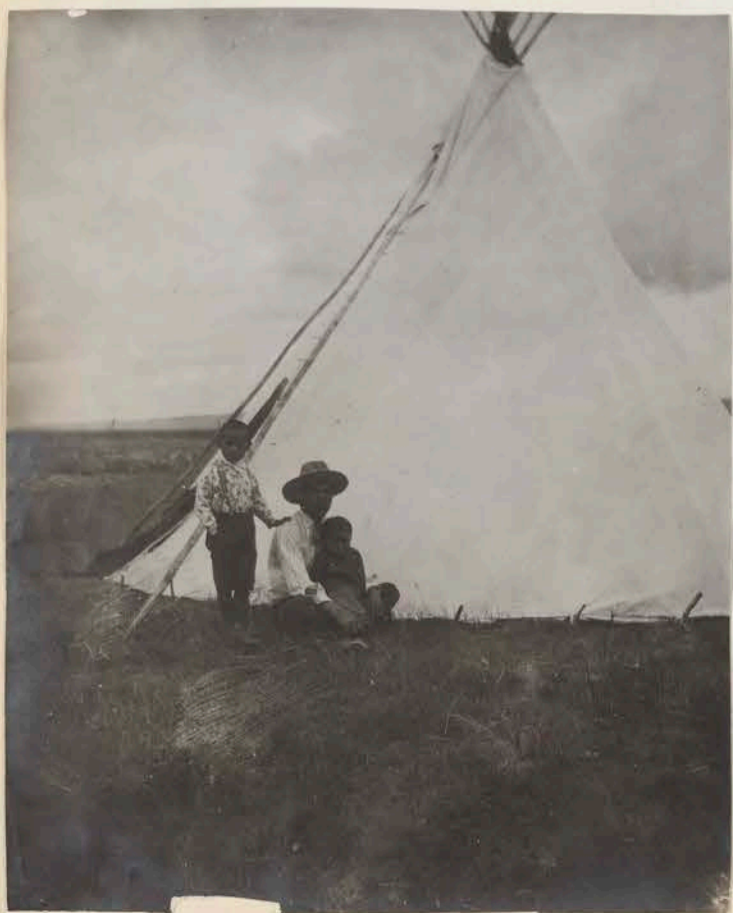

212

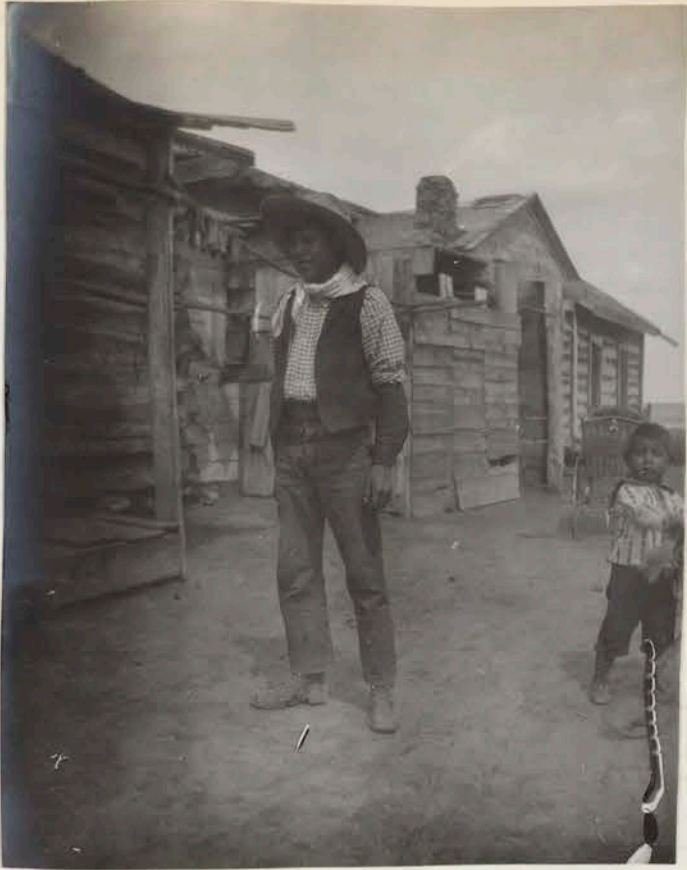

Lewis Baker & Children.

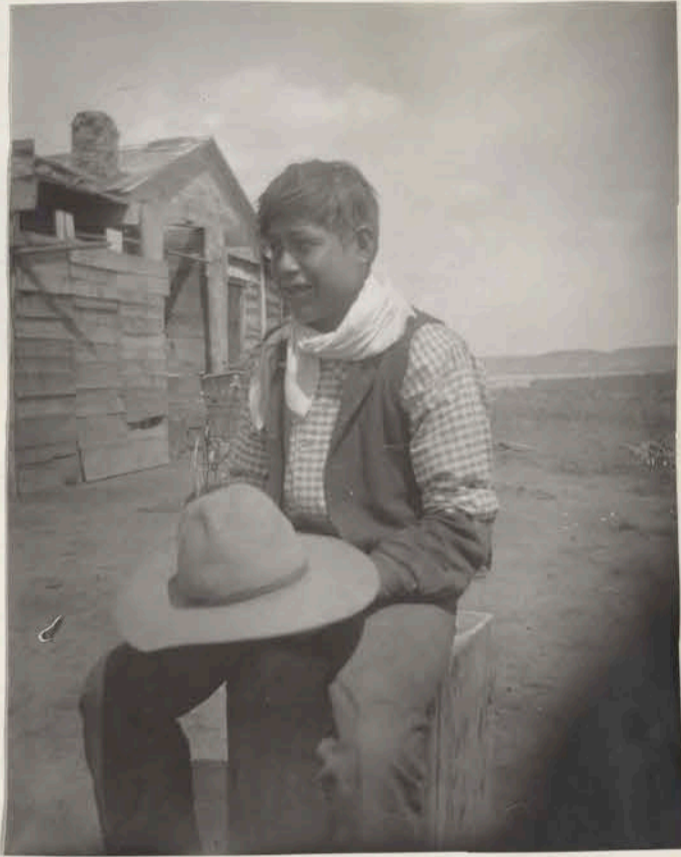

213.

Lewis Baker and Children

Wolf Chief's Cabin.

✓
215
Wolf Chief's Cabin - Indian.

216 Wolf Chief's daughter. On the cabin wall is a woven grass feather case with feathers ✓

218

Same.

217

William Bell and family

220

Short Bull. Eating dinner

222

Short Bull's camp. Eating dinner.

219

Short Bull. Claimed to be oldest living Mandan, summer of 1906 - 86 years old.

221

Short Bull's son-in-law.

223

Neighboring Camp of another family Note branches thrust in ground for shade. An Indian custom

224

65 '3'

✓ Cabin of Edward Good Bird. His father and mother in front.

225

✓ Good Bird's father Son-of-a-Star and his wife.

226

✓ Same with Good Bird. The old people had never before consented to be photographed.

✓ 227
Same.
228
Same.

229
Same. The two eagle feathers and design on inside leggings means "struck coup twice on enemy!"

✓ Son of a Star had "sent an arrow three times in his life thru a buffalo"

230
 ✓ A fish trap. They are built of willow Good Bird with the willow basket used in dipping out the fish. The fisher wades in the trap naked, after slamming down the gate. Small wand with bunch of leaves in center, hardly perceptible is to show by its shaking that trap is full of fish. See (137) is full of fish. See (137)

231

Scene on the Missouri.

232

Mouth of Knife River

233

On the way home. In the Bad Lands of the Reservation. Mr. Slunbrueck & my brother Fred.

✓

234

Myself and brother Fred on small butte of blue clay.

235

An Indian's cabin

✓

236

Trail thru the Reservation

237

Digging an Archæa grave near old Ft. Clark. My brother. Note sage brush.

✓

✓

238

Old village site of Hidalsas a mile up the Knife river from the mouth of the circles are old earth lodge sites.

239 Scene on Missouri from old Indian Village Site, at old Ft. Clark.

240

Same, below the bank along the "Bottoms"

241
 The Bottom Land along the Missouri - natural home of deer.

242

A settler's home, not far from Washburn.

243

Prairie scene, not far from Washburn.

✓

244

A Sod House. Type of N.W. Settlers first home.

245

Coal veins near Washburn.

✓

✓

246

Lynx, shot five miles from Langdon, August 1906.

247

Same, propped into position for photographing.

✓

A. T. O'Reilly
Aberdeen S.D.

248

Short Bull, oldest Mandan.
Died June 1907. Note cap.
Claimed he could remember back to the Small pox year. The week he died - or fortnight rather he made all arrangements and sent for the Indian undertaker. Short Bull however rallied and the "undertaker" had to camp on the nearby prairie two weeks waiting for his patient to die.

249 Method of keeping meat during hot weather.
Wasta
S.W. Black Hills region

250 Action of rotary snow plow, near Langdon N.D.
winter of 1906.
In February the snow had drifted in places as quite to over-top the coaches of the trains.

251.

Brant, shot in small lake or slough, three miles from Langdon, October, 1907. My brother and I were hunting ducks when the flock passed overhead.

I had it photographed by laying it on its back propped into appropriate position for flight, in order to get proportions of a flying brant.

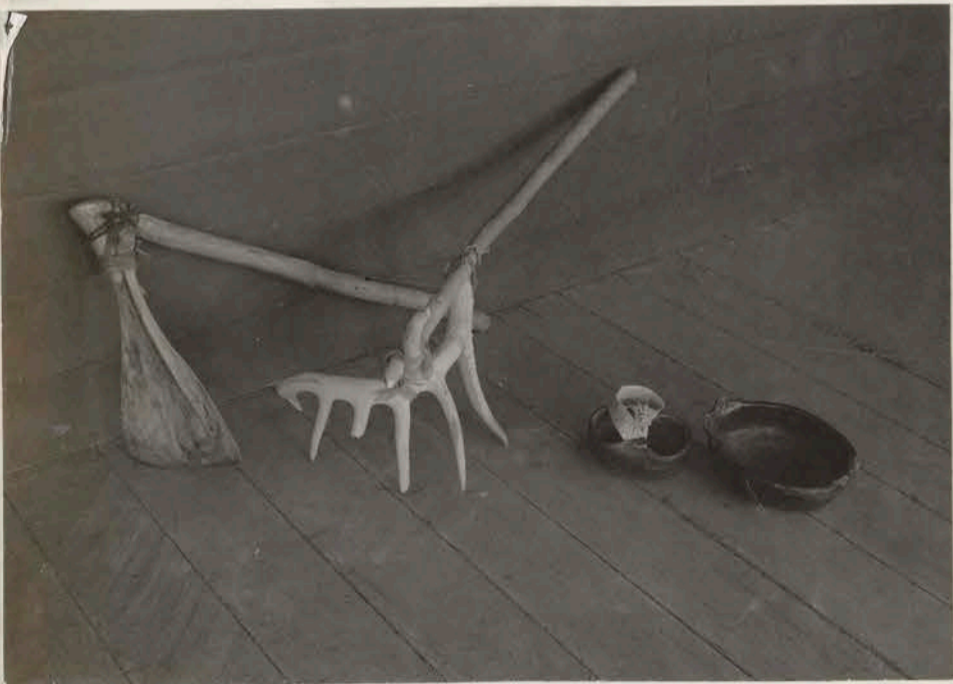

252.

Rotary Plow. See also no (250)

253

Mandan hoe and rake. - The former of a buffalo (here beef) shoulder blade, the latter of a deer antler. Two specimens of pottery, the one with the handle it was claimed was medicine.

254

255 Hidatsa hunting lodge in the Black Hills photographed

256 about 1880. Two views.

257
A Jersey in Red River Valley.

258
In camp, at mouth of Little Missouri, first week in July 1907.

259 Going to the dance. The Crier is just entering booth.

I-3

I-3
260

Going to the Dance.

261
I-5 Going to the Dance

I-5

262 Entrance to the Booth

I-7

I-8

I-8

263 Booth - Details of construction from within

I-9

264 Same from without.

I-19

265
Group. Fourth July, 1907

I-10

266 I-11
Another group. 4th July 1907.

I-12

Group women 4th July 267
1907

I-13

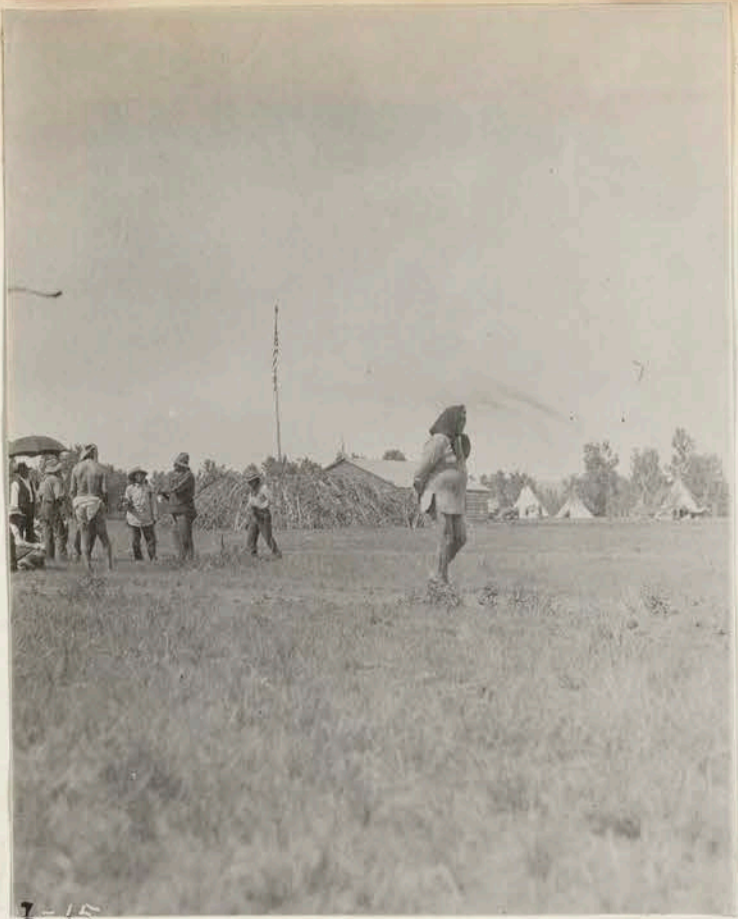

268
Group old men. 4th Jul '07

In camp July 4 '07 Before old men's race.

269

I-14

270

Getting ready, old men's race.

757

I-15

I-15

271

Same.

I-16

272
Same

273

Same.

I-18

274 Same. Old Men's Race START!

I-20

I-19

Same.

275

Before
Race

I-21

276

The Race - Speed Away!

I-21

I-22

I-22

277

After the Race

I-23

278

After the Race

I-24

279

Going home after Race

I-25

280

Same, going home

the 19

281
Going home after Race.

282 Home-ward after Race

283
One of the Racers.

284 Boys' Race - Start.

285
Boys' Race - Away -

Scene in Camp. 4 July '07
286

I-32

287 Native Broom

288 Group awaiting Pony Race

I-34

Pony Race 289

I-35

290 Pony race

After Pony Race

291

I-36

I-37

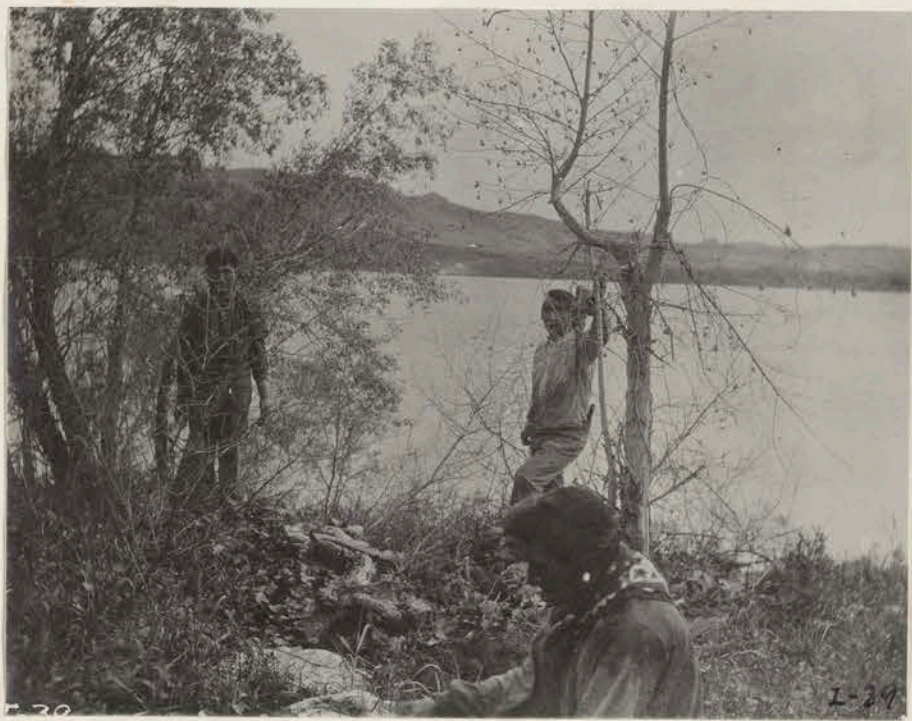

292
Camp scene - July '07

I-38

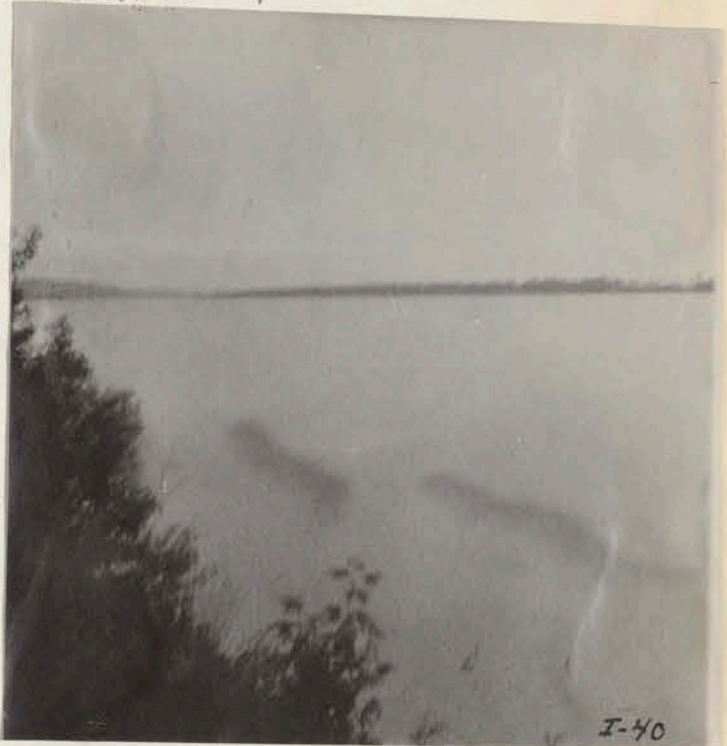

293

Camp scene.

I-39

294 Skinning a Beuf-Spotted Rabbit at Knute

I-40

295

Ev. on Missouri July 1907.

296
Mrs. Walker and Babe

I-41

I-42

297

Mrs. Walker's family enter-ior Crow's Heart's Lodge.

298 Mrs. Walks, Interior
Crow's Heart's Lodge.

299
Dancers in Booth Evr.

Dancers in Booth Evr.
300

Moccasin game.

302 Moccasin game

303 Moccasin game.

304

Moccasin game

I-49

I-50

Moccasin game

305

I-51

306

Moccasin game

I-52

Moccasin game

307

I-53

308 Moccasin game

I-54

Moccasin game

309

Dancing Booth Elbo woods. July 310 4th 09 - Flies Away's boy.

Interior Booth Elbo woods. Dancing

312 Same. Reeling

313

Dancing Booth - same.

3 Same. 314

315

Dancing Booth returning to rest. Medicine pole center

316

Dancing in booth

317

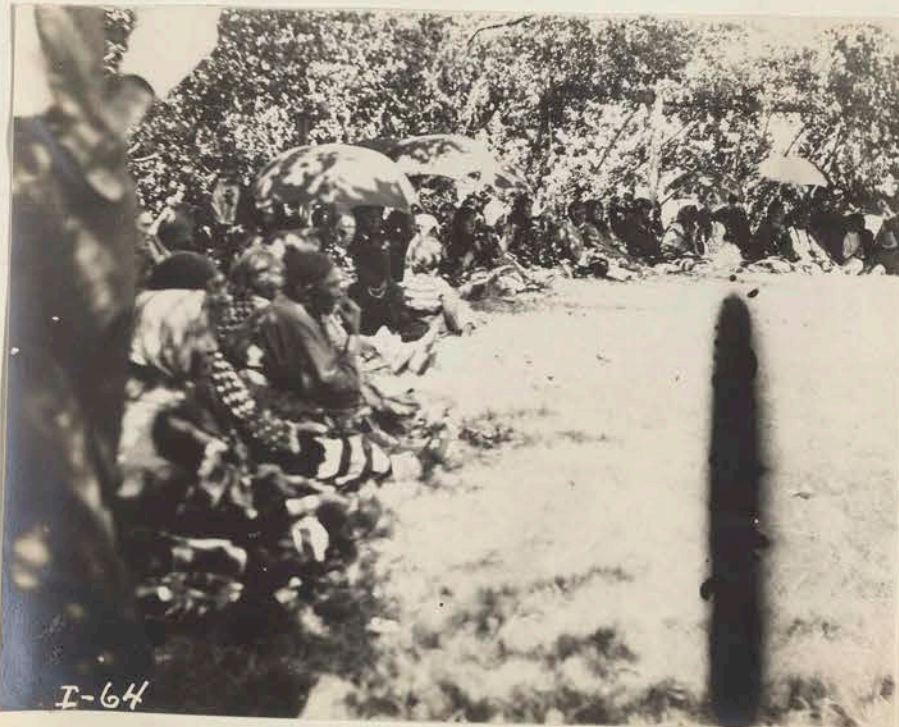

Dancing in Booth

318

In the Booth Men's side

319

In the Booth, Women's side

320

The Gift pony - given for recovery of a lad from illness. Horse gaily painted.

I-65

Wolf Chief's 321 Family.

Wolf Chief's family.

322

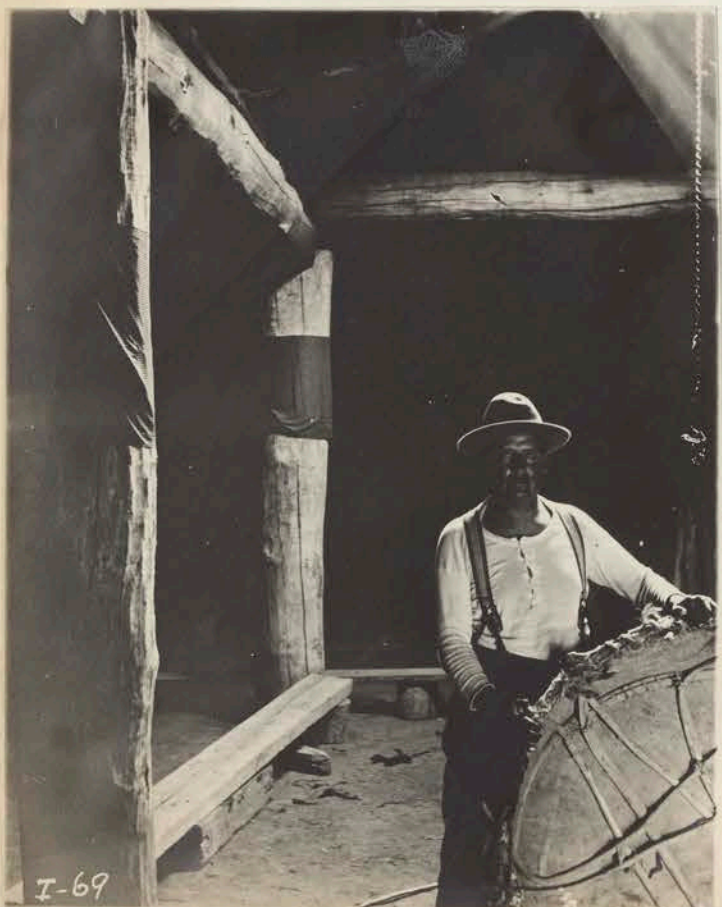

I-67

I-68

323

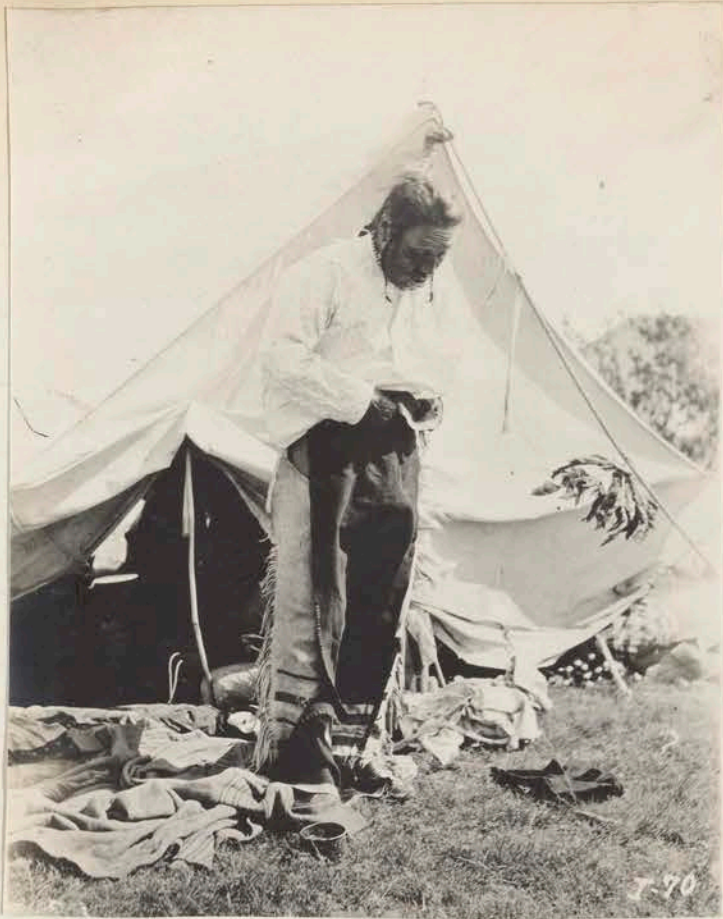

Good Bird in Crow's Heart's Lodge

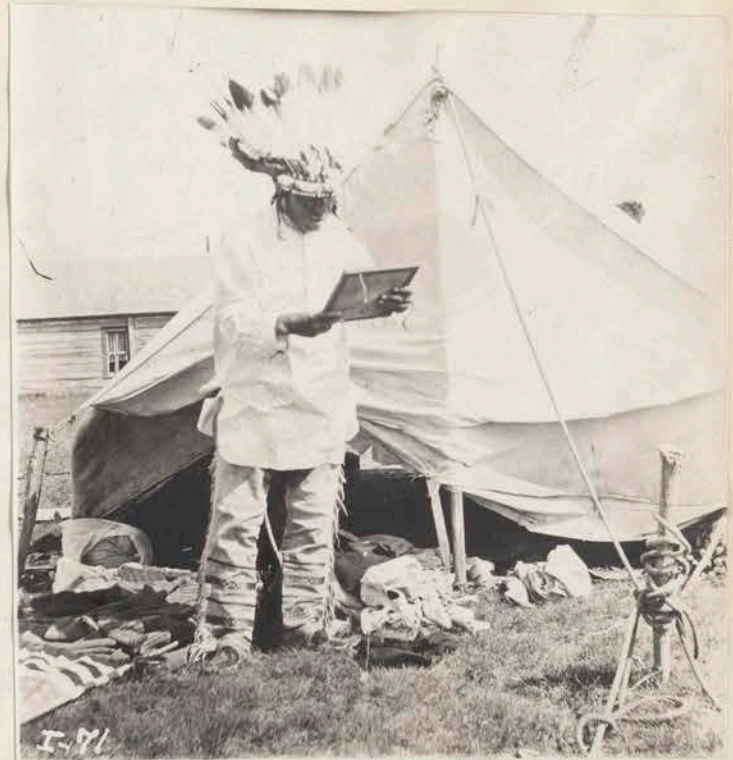

324

Same -

I-69

325 Long Tail dressing for Photo
Two views.

326

327

Edna South and others Mandans.
Long Tail + daughters.
329

328

Wolf Chief babes.

The Camp from Butte

330

Burying in brush for shade

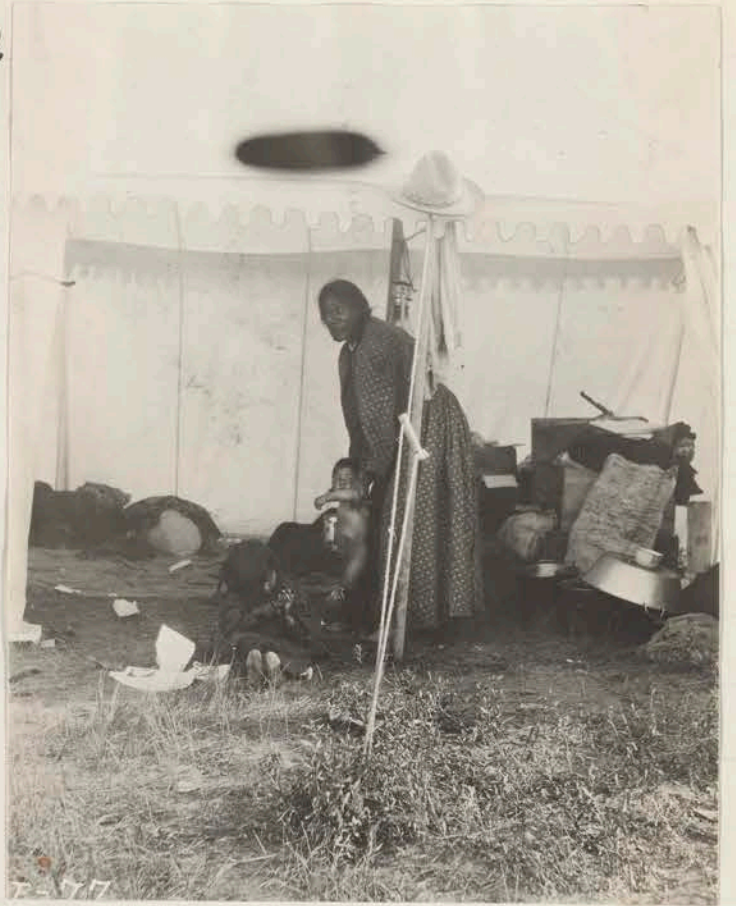

I-75

331

Going to the Dance.

332

333

Paul Wolf Chief
(one year old)

Same.

I-78

I-79

Same

334

335

Same.

336

Women chanting joy over victory of friends in tug-of-war

337

Child in legging - taken home!.

338

Girl in tent.

339

Medicine Stone & family

340

Medicine Stones Child

341

Boiling meat over fire

I-87
I-87

342 A hot day in July
- afternoon. Note
shade made by brush.

343

Buffalo Paunch, Lance

I-89
I-89

Summer and daughter on top of Crow's I-88

344 Heart's Lodge.

345

I-91
Same further 346 away.

347

Same going home
after snappet.

I-92

348

Same - going home.

349

Bringing Wood.

350

Long Tail's tent

351

Pack's Wolf & Sons.

353

Even Scene
(6:30) (PM)

352 Pack's Wolf & wife and Flora Smith

354

Ev. scene

355

Wolf Chief's Child

I-100

356

Interior of tent. Shows how tent cover is raised on a hot day. (Foolish Woman's Tent)

Tent interior. Indian lying on his back. Tent cover raised for air. 4" July Camp.

(Foolish Woman's Tent) 357

358 Fourth of July camp Two Indian women in gala costume. - Mrs Foolish Woman and Mrs Foolish Bear